Website: www.associationdiplomats.org

association@diplomats.com, association.diplomats@rediffmail.com

This eDirectory of the Members of the Association is based on information available with the Association as on 1 April 2018. All efforts have been made to ensure that the information provided in the Directory is correct and any omission that may still remain is due to inadvertency and is regretted.

While the printed directory is issued once a year, on 1 April, the soft version - the 'eDirectory' is issued twice, on 1 April and 1 October each year.

Changes may be intimated, immediately as they occur, so that these may be included in the data base maintained by the Association and correspondence can be sent to the correct addresses.

Members who have not intimated their eMail IDs are once again requested to do so. This will not only cut down avoidable expenditure and effort but also enable quick communication for events held at short notice, changes in schedule etc.

About the Association

The Association of Indian Diplomats (A.I.D.) is a group of former Ambassadors and High Commissioners of India including those Indian Nationals who have served in multilateral agencies in the rank of Under Secretary General of the U.N. or equivalent or higher. The Association presently has 266 regular members and 33 guest members.

Formed in 1980 and registered under the Societies Registration Act of 1960, objectives enumerated in Article 3 of the Memorandum of Association include: to bring together those who have worked in the field of international diplomacy, particularly in the context of India's external relations; to enable its members to keep abreast of International and National issues, specially those concerning India and to provide them with opportunities to help in such ways as are appropriate in promoting a better understanding of foreign affairs; to provide a forum for study, discussion and debate; and, to provide a link between the Indian Foreign Office and members of the Association and to develop it to the extent possible and appropriate.

The Association holds one meeting each month (Except during the months of June and July), when a scholar / expert is invited to speak on a subject of contemporary relevance. Additional meetings are organised as and when needed. The association brings out a quarterly – “The Indian Foreign Affairs Journal”. The Association, with the co-operation of the Foreign Service Institute also administers the award of “Ambassador Bimal Sanyal Memorial Prize / Medal”, for the Best IFS Officer Trainee and for the Best dissertation.

The years' activities come to an end with the AGM and the Annual Dinner.

Indian Foreign Affairs Journal

<http://associationdiplomats.org/Publications/ifaj/IFAJGeneral.htm>

Launched in 2006, the Association's Quarterly, the "Indian Foreign Affairs Journal", is now in its thirteenth year. The Journal is guided by an Editorial Advisory Board, including International Advisors. The Journal has since established a niche for itself, becoming a forum for the examination of relevant but sensitive and complex issues of India's foreign policy and relations.

Besides in-depth policy oriented Articles, each issue presents a Debate on one of the contemporary aspects of India's foreign policy. It also includes a special and unique section which brings out and preserves in print, the hitherto unknown aspects of India's diplomatic experience and policy initiative through its Oral History narrative, in the course of tête-à-tête with senior policy makers who have made decisive contributions in the evolution of the policy and its challenging issues

*Members enjoy a concessional annual subscription of Rs.600.00 (per Calendar year) as against the normal subscription of Rs. 2,500.00 + P&H.
